ain like you fight and fight like you train."

OFFICE OF ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR FOR MILITARY AFFAIRS

March 2009

Exercise Goals & Objectives

"Train like you fight and fight like you train."

- Emphasize strategic and tactical HUMINT operations and collection capabilities.
- Produce written HUMINT scripts and story-lines to support the development of National and DoD level exercise scenarios.
- Establish "situational awareness" for deploying US military leadership on Agency crisis response capabilities.
- Emphasize targeting coordination and deconfliction procedures.
- Provide Agency Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) to enhance the quality of National HUMINT requirements throughout the Exercise period.
- Educate Intelligence Community mission components and US military on our HUMINT support during the Time Sensitive Planning (TSP) process during a time of crisis.

Exercise Support - Tiered Approach

- Set Criteria for Participation: Must be Strategic or Operational-level focus for DoD, an opportunity for two-way education, an evolutionary vs. fully-scripted event, with IC-wide & Interagency support
- Priority of Participation:
  - JCS mandated exercises
  - Major COCOM sponsored "significant" events
  - Deploying Units (MEUs, Divisions, and Corps or equivalents)
  - Special Operation exercises
  - Homeland Defense related (by exception and via NORTHCOM or JSOC request)
- National/DoD Level Exercises (COCOM and above)
- Military Service Level Exercises (Leading to Crisis Support)
- Balanced with & through the following:
  - Inreach / Outreach Programs
  - Strategic Agency guidance
  - Collaboration with JFCOM and JCS exercise planners

Benefits

CIA Benefit

- Enhance understanding of military strengths and limitations

- Provide area familiarizations

- Test Agency systems and procedures-including communication equipment

- Familiarize personnel with requirements of support to military operations within a military environment

- Improve awareness and understanding of intel related issues associated with military operations.

Military Benefit

- Exposure to CIA HUMINT and analytical reporting and CIA's role in requests for information (RFI) process

- Familiarization with CIA's role in Crisis Support and CIA's role and capabilities in force protection/threat reporting

- Understand Agency's strengths and limitations.

- Exposure to unique authorities, contacts and capabilities

Tiered Approach

National/DoD Level Exercises
Top Officials, Terminal Fury, Austere Challenge, Able Warrior, etc.

Military Service Level Exercises
- MRX support for forces ready to deploy to Iraq, Afghanistan, JTF/HOA
- USMC certification

Inreach / Outreach Program

Priority of Participation: ADMA supports JCS mandated exercises, Major COCOM sponsored "significant" events, Special Operation exercises and works with War College reps assisting "next generation" officers with war-game scenarios and the development of transforming policies.

Criteria of Participation: Requested by Command, legitimate CIA role, history of participation, unique opportunities, new initiatives, and funding.

QUESTIONS?